

Guidelines for English Proficiency Certification Letter for Exchange Students

The letter should be printed on University letterhead and include details explaining and attesting to how the exchange student has sufficient proficiency in English to successfully participate in the exchange program on a day-